

Student Course Feedback

Your feedback plays an important role in helping your instructor maintain or improve the course. Feedback is also considered in their performance review. Your answers are anonymous – your name does not appear on any report – furthermore, your instructor will not see your feedback until the term has ended.

YSU recognizes that student evaluations of teaching are often influenced by students' unconscious and unintentional biases. As you fill out this measure, please keep this in mind and try to resist stereotypes about instructors.

Focus your comments about the content of the course (e.g., the assignments, the textbook, the in-class material) rather than unrelated matters (e.g., the instructor's appearance or identity).
