HERITAGE AWARD NOMINATION

The Youngstown State University Heritage Award recognizes distinguished former members of the University's faculty and professional/administrative staff whose contributions and long-term devotion to the University are important to the heritage of the University and the community it serves.

Former members of the University's faculty (either full-time or part-time) or former full-time professional/administrative staff are eligible for nomination, provided the individual's paid employment by the University ended at least one year before the time of nomination, and there is no expectation of future full-time employment. Nominees may be living or deceased.

Nominations may be made by alumni or by current or former faculty and staff members. In the space below, identify the individual nominated, and describe why you feel this person should receive the Heritage Award.
