

Affidavits of Financial Support - Visiting Students

You can find estimates of the amount of additional funds you will need on this page. The US immigration regulation requires international students to verify sufficient financial resources at least equal to the estimate provided below.

Before issuing documents which will enable you to obtain your student visa, we must have the information requested below. U.S. Immigration regulations restrict student employment; therefore, do not expect to supplement your income with employment during your exchange program. Even though you are required to show proof that you are financially able to support your studies at YSU for the amount listed below, your actual cost of living may be more or less than that amount. Please note that visiting students are not eligible to receive a tuition waiver.

Required Supporting Documents:

To support the information that you have provided, you must include copies of original funding letters, and/or bank statements. Bank statements may be provided by yourself, a member of your family, a guarantor, or a combination of individuals. If multiple individuals will support you during your studies at YSU, you must provide financial support documents from each person/organization. Bank statements must be dated within 6 months of the date of application in US dollars, or in local currencies with the equivalent amount in US dollars. Please note that no DS-2019 form will be issued without evidence of sufficient financial support (these documents are required when applying for J-1 visa from a US consulate). Students who are admitted on the basis of scanned documents must bring their original Bank Statements to the International Programs Office for verification upon their arrival.
