

Taylor is a two-time graduate of YSU, where earned her bachelor's and master's degree in social work in 2021 and 2023. Taylor previously was a graduate intern with YSU Office of the Dean of Student, where she was dedicated to student success and well-being. Taylor looks forward to enhancing students' advising experience during their time at YSU and growing professionally. Outside of work, she enjoys baking, going to beach and spending time with her family and pets.